What will the Census ask? Selected example questions

FAITH
IN PUBLIC LIFE

How many people are living or staying here on April 1, 2020?

Do you own or rent your residence?

Each person's sex, age, date of birth, and race.

Each person's relation (spouse, sibling, roommate) to the respondent.

Start here OR go online at [url removed] to complete your 2020 Census questionnaire.
Use a blue or black pen.

Before you answer Question 1, count the people living in this house, apartment, or mobile home using our guidelines.

- Count all people, including babies, who live and sleep here most of the time.
- If no one lives and sleeps at this address most of the time, go online at [url removed] or call the number on page 8.

The census must also include people without a permanent place to live, so:

- If someone who does not have a permanent place to live is staying here on April 1, 2020, count that person.

The Census Bureau also conducts counts in institutions and other places, so:

- Do not count anyone living away from here, either at college or in the Armed Forces.
- Do not count anyone in a nursing home, jail, prison, detention facility, etc., on April 1, 2020.
- Leave these people off your questionnaire, even if they will return to live here after they leave college, the nursing home, the military, jail, etc. Otherwise, they may be counted twice.

1. How many people were living or staying in this house, apartment, or mobile home on April 1, 2020?

Number of people =

2. Were there any additional people staying here on April 1, 2020 that you did not include in Question 1?

Responses are not shared with other government agencies.

Title 13 of the U.S. Code: census data can only be used for statistical purposes, meaning personal information cannot be used against respondents in court or by a government agency.

Title 44 of the U.S. Code: Personal census information cannot be disclosed for 72 years.

Census Bureau staff who have access to personal information are sworn for life to protect confidentiality. Penalty for wrongful disclosure is up to 5 years imprisonment and $250,000 fine.

The Census: From Exclusion to Equality

FAITH
IN PUBLIC LIFE

- Designed as a tally to distribute political power and public money unequally and unjustly:
  - Counted every white person as a full person
  - Counted enslaved people of African descent as  $\frac{3}{5}$  of a person
  - Did not count Native Americans at all
- We want to ensure that all people, regardless of race, age, or immigration status are counted so we have a fair and accurate count.

Why is this a faithful issue? Dignity

FAITH
IN PUBLIC LIFE

We believe that all people, regardless of race, religion, or immigration status, are made in God's image. Our God-given dignity demands recognition.

What we declare when we answer the Census is that we are here, and we are part of "we the people" and we refuse to be excluded.

Fear not is the most often repeated phrase in Hebrew and Christian scripture-- repeated 365 times. Do not be afraid to state your presence.

Why is this a faithful issue? Community

FAITH
IN PUBLIC LIFE

You count in this country. Your work and your contribution to the common good and common ground, moves beyond the walls of where we worship.

Your voice matters. Your communities, your schools, your children need you to be counted to receive the right economic apportionment.

We must work together and do everything in our power to make sure that everyone in our local communities are counted so we all can get the resources we deserve.

Why is this a faithful issue? Democracy

FAITH
IN PUBLIC LIFE

By completing the Census and encouraging our communities do so, we claim our rightful representation and fulfill our responsibility to our neighbors and future generations.

The truth is that being counted contributes to the strengthening of the democracy. If we are undercounted, they are taking away our voices from our democracy and our rights.

As spiritual and moral people, to participate in our democracy is to be counted.
